She was simply stunned to hear what her banker told her. I’m really sorry Marybeth, but I can’t do any better than 3.33% on that CD. If you want to tie your money up for 5 years, I can get you 3.88%, but that’s it.”

▶ A lousy 3% on CD’s! What’s She Going To Do?

Marybeth felt betrayed. After all, she had been putting her savings in this bank for 18 years. And now that Allen was no longer here she had to take care of everything herself.

It frightened her to have to deal with taxes, and paying bills and trying to figure out things like refinancing her home. All that was tough enough, but then watching her monthly income sink like a brick in the water, was the last straw.

He didn’t even care that we had been such loyal customers all these years,” thought Marybeth.

▶ There Is Nothing The Bank Can Do.

“I asked him why I was still paying 18.5% on my credit card balances, when he was only willing to pay me a little better than 2% on my savings. It made me real sad to hear him say that there was nothing he could do.”

As she stepped into her home, she was reminded of Allen everywhere she looked. “What would he do?” she thought to herself.

Marybeth then opened the mail, and saw the statement from her stock brokerage company. She was afraid to open it, because the market had been on such a roller coaster ride that she knew her accounts were likely to be down, again.

▶ Her Biggest Fear Had Come True!

Sure enough when she saw the balance of her IRA and mutual fund accounts, she got a sick feeling in the pit of her stomach. Marybeth had to sit down and gather herself, staring at the unbelievable amount of money her accounts had lost, even worse than before!

She started to cry. She said out loud to no one in particular, “I’ve lost a lot of my retirement money, and I’m too old to make it up. Why did I put money in this crazy, up and down market? I should have known better.”

Then Marybeth felt a chill go through her as she became filled with guilt. “Oh my God.” What would Allen have said if he knew I had put so much cash, the money he had worked so hard for... into a casino like the stock market? He would be so mad....” Marybeth’s mind trailed off, as she cried some more. How badly she felt for herself and for Allen.

▶ The Answer Revealed Itself to Her!

When Marybeth sat down to read the paper, she saw an article that made her curious, and she sent for a free report that was commented on in the article.

The article said there are alternatives to CD’s, stocks and mutual funds that most people didn’t know about. Alternatives that have no risk, but had the benefit of higher returns.....and tax benefits to boot!

Marybeth called the toll-free recorded message and requested her copy of this free report. She was hoping this was the answer she had been seeking.

A couple of days later, when she opened the mail, she was excited to see the free report had arrived. Marybeth made herself a cup of tea, and sat down at her kitchen table to take in all the information in the report.

▶ A Sigh of Relief!

When she finished reading the information, she felt comfortable for the first time since Allen passed away. She had finally learned the little known alternative to CD’s, stocks and mutual funds her banker and broker had never told her about.
